NOTE ON AIR ARRANGEMENTS:

Please note that we can provide air arrangements at the request and as a convenience to our customers in conjunction with our land and cruise programs. Air prices quoted are regulated by air carriers and can change at any time without notice. You do NOT have to purchase your air arrangements from us. However, if you choose to do so, please note the following:

To provide you with the lowest possible airfare, we reserve the right to choose the airline of our choice in order to take advantage of special promotional fares. If you accept our quotes, some tickets may require additional deposits or may be subject to instant ticketing and must be paid in full. These fares can be quite restrictive and carry cancellation charges imposed by the airlines ranging from 50% to 100%. Therefore, any penalties resulting from flight changes at your request after airline tickets are issued will be your responsibility.

If you cancel your trip after receiving your tickets, you must return your tickets to us before your refund (if applicable) can be processed. If you have your own airline preference, we reserve the right to adjust the cost of the airfare or you have the option of purchasing your own air transportation. Finally, please note that we act only as an agent for the airlines in question and once the tickets are issued you are governed by the rules of passage as outlined on your airline ticket, including delays, loss of luggage etc. In addition, we cannot provide individual services including specific seat assignments, meal requests, frequent flyer miles and similar. These services must be handled between you and the airline directly.

Air routings are subject to availability. Routings cannot be guaranteed and are subject to change at any time. We are not responsible if an airline cancels or delays a flight. If that occurs, you should work with the airline to ensure you arrive at your destination. Value World Tours will not provide any refund for portions of trips missed due to cancelled or delayed flights. If an air schedule requires an overnight stay in a gateway city, Value World Tours can assist with hotel reservations; however, if a flight requires a layover, overnights are at your expense. Additional transportation to catch up to a tour or cruise that is in progress will also be at your expense.

If you choose to make your own domestic and/or international flight arrangements, Value World Tours will not be responsible for any loss resulting from any changes or alterations in our land or cruise programs. We recommend that you do not purchase tickets with high penalty charges for changes. If you make your own domestic flight arrangements and you miss your international flight for any reason, we can only assist with alternate flight arrangements; however, you are responsible for the cost of an alternate flight to your destination, as well as any other expenses (hotel & transportation costs) incurred prior to joining up with your tour/cruise group.

PRICE CORRECTIONS/PASSENGER RESPONSIBILITY

Value World Tours reserves the right to correct promotional or pricing errors at any time, or to increase the program price in the event of cost increases due to changes in airfares, cruise fares, currency fluctuations, entrance fee increases, increase in fuel costs, taxes or similar. We also reserve the right to withdraw and/or cancel a tour or cruise, or to make changes in the itinerary, routing or schedule of events whenever, in our sole judgment, conditions warrant it, or if such conditions and/or changes result from circumstances beyond our control or we deem it necessary for the comfort, convenience or the safety of the passengers. Purchase of our Price Protection is strongly recommended. We also reserve the right to decline to accept or retain any person as a member of a cruise/tour at any time should such a person's health, behavior or attitude, in our sole judgment, impede the operation of the cruise/tour program or affect the enjoyment of the program by other passengers. If such a person is asked to leave the cruise/tour while in progress, any related costs will be the responsibility of that individual.

FORCE MAJEURE (CRUISES): As with all travel arrangements but especially with sailings on various world-wide waterways, cruising carries with it an inherent risk which you as a passenger must accept when considering this form of travel. Therefore, in case of any and all unforeseen circumstances including but not limited to: weather conditions, low or high waters, lock schedules, acts of God, government actions, political turmoil, disease, strikes, terrorism, general break down of equipment, closures or black outs of certain attractions listed in the program or similar, we as the agent of the Owners/Operators of various vessels offered in our programs reserve the absolute right to change and/or alter any specific sailing date or a series of departure dates including implementing any of the following: a) substituting vessels of same or similar quality, b) operating portions of the sailing program via motor coach/ hotel accommodations to replace ship schedules, c) substituting listed attractions with those of same or similar quality without prior notice. The vessel operators also reserve the right to cancel any particular sailing date or series of departures, for reasons outlined above, lack of participation or for any other reasons beyond their control. In the unlikely event of a cancelled sailing date, in conjunction with the vessel owners/operators, we reserve the right to offer an alternate date or dates within the same sailing season without further liability. If not acceptable to passengers for appropriate reasons, we reserve the right to extend full credit for monies received for a cancelled sailing and apply it to any other sailing dates and destinations. If none of the alternatives are workable, the limit of our and the vessel owner/operator responsibility will be the refund of all monies received for the cancelled sailing within 60 days of the final written cancellation received from the partner/passenger. Under no circumstances will we or the owners/operators of vessels be liable for any expenses not paid through us, including any airfares, delays, cancellations or changes and any air ticketing fees that may be applied due to such changes, any additional ground transportation or extra accommodation surcharges, travel insurance, visa fees, taxes, psychological trauma and/or lost business income or revenue, or other incidental expenses incurred to the Passenger as a result of our or vessel owner/operator cancellation of a specific sailing or series of sailings. Travel insurance is therefore, strongly recommended!
